Sugar Sales To Be Suspended For Week April 27

Family Consumers Will Register At Schools For Coupon Books May 4, 5, 6 and 7

(By Associated Press)
Chicago.—All sugar sales in the United States will be halted until April 27 for approximately one week, government officials have just announced.

They set six days in April and May for the nationwide rationing registration. John E. Hamm, acting chief of the Office of Price Administration, reported that sugar would not be available to consumers again until about May 5. Hamm explained that the ban was ordered as a step preparatory to sales under rationing, which will go into effect as soon as the moratorium on sales ends. Earlier, dates were fixed for the national registration—big in the history of the United States and involving every man, woman and child in the country. Frank Bane, field chief of the OPA, announced that individual family consumers would register May 4, 5, 6, and 7 at public elementary schools, and wholesalers, retailers, bakers, confectioners and other industrial users would register May 28 and 29 at high schools. Speakersmen said that the registration would follow this plan: Individual consumers will go to designated public schools in their neighborhoods at hours to be fixed locally on any of the five dates. Teachers—probably 250,000 to 1,500,000 of them—will serve as registrars. The member of a family can register the entire household. He will fill out and sign a registration giving the name, age and address of each applicant and the amount of sugar on hand. Each person will receive a ration book. It will contain twenty-eight stamps. Each stamp represents a two-week allotment. (That is, each permit the holder to buy one or pound and a half of sugar during the period but the amount has not yet been determined.) If the stamp is not used in the buying period, it will not be good thereafter. The registrar will tear out of the book a sufficient number of stamps to cover the amount of sugar in excess of two pounds per person on hand at the time of registration. Consumers will use stamps to store keepers when purchases are made and storekeepers will use the stamps in turn when they buy fresh supplies. It was estimated that registration would require five minutes per person registered. Industrial users will use certificates instead of stamps. The formula for their allotment has not yet been fixed.

ORMAL INSTRUCTIONS NOT RECEIVED HERE
Neither Robert Jacobs, clerk of the Caldwell County Ration Board, or Supt. Everett Howland of the city schools, had received any information or instructions concerning registration of Princeton citizens in the rationing program, they said this week. It is expected that arrangements made for listing all Princeton residents and members of their families, as previously announced in The Leader, will be done with teachers and volunteers doing the registering on designated by the Office of Administration, Washington.

Baltimore (AP)—Thieves broke into a tire company where hundreds of new tires—the kind with the big, thick, marvelous treads (remember?)—were stored. These thieves walked out with $145 from a safe and stole a chewing gum vending machine—but didn't touch a single tire.

Before his death Mitchell had his tombstone prepared and he ordered a niche cut in it; placed the hardtack there and had it covered with glass.

This Bank Is Cooperating In The Food For Freedom Program

The nation is calling on farmers this year to turn out the greatest farm production in history. The people of America and the United Nations need more meat, milk, eggs, vegetables, fruits and oil crops.

We recommend that you put every available acre into high profit crops such as corn, grain and soybeans. Use better seed. Step up the use of fertilizers. Make the most efficient use of labor.

The maximum use of your land is justified as we believe that profits this year will be far above the average. It may be the best opportunity in a generation for farmers to "cash in." Consult the County Agent in working out a program for the intensive use of your land, then

IF YOU NEED MONEY

To buy seed, fertilizers, livestock, fence, buildings to better house your produce or stock or for any other reason which will result in more efficient use of your land, and if your program is sound,

WE WILL HELP YOU

Much has been said about, "This is a good time to get out of debt." Undoubtedly this advice is excellent when applied to borrowing for the purpose of holding large supplies of grain and livestock beyond marketing period or the purchase of additional land by mortgaging it and your present farm. We do not recommend that you become involved in debt which can only be repaid over a long period of years, but we believe that a farmer is fully justified at this time in borrowing necessary funds for the purpose of using the maximum productivity of his land.

Can we help you in carrying out YOUR part in the FOOD FOR FREEDOM PROGRAM?

Hitler And Axis Pals Pull Nifties As April Foolers

Every Spring Nazi Dictator Springs Unpleasant Surprises On Neighbors

By Herman Allen
Wide World Features
April Fool! Some joke! Haw-haw!

Adolf Hitler and his Axis pals are usually just full of fun when April comes around. Maybe it's just the sap stirring, maybe it's because it's easier to push a line of tanks around the country when the snow has melted. Anyway, as far back as 1932, the year Hitler ran against Von Hindenburg for president, he "ordered" his followers to avoid trouble which might postpone the election, then turned around and accused Von Hindenburg's side of monopolizing the radio.

Von Hindenburg won. Hitler wasn't strong enough yet to stop him, but in 1933, as chancellor, he embarked on a long string of April Fool jokes. That year he and his boys pulled these nifties: Hitler said he stood for "peace with equality." (But already his propaganda machine was dinning hate into German ears.)

Von Papen and Goering said Germany and Austria would "co-operate with the same objectives." (Austria "cooperated" a few years later.)

Hitler denied he had offered dictatorship to the people, said a new German people must be created. (Twenty thousand were being made into new Germans in concentration camps.)

The Nazis promised to limit a Jewish boycott to one day, just to "put them in their place." (Boycott and worse are still going on.)

Mussolini, meanwhile, was saying that Fascism protects Jews. (Italy now has anti-Jewish laws modeled after Germany's.)

And Since Then

This is the way it has gone since then:

April, 1934—German Reichstag passed a huge military budget; Goering declared defense of German borders was a part of police duty; youths were drafted into the army to "relieve unemployment."

But Hitler said Germany wanted peace.

Mussolini said Italy wanted peace, too, but a few weeks later he declared she must be prepared for war. "Incidents" on the Ethiopian border were beginning to break out at that time.

Japan began extra heavy imports of scrap iron that year.

April, 1935—Germany disclosed a plan to rebuild her navy. Many U-boats had already been built, and there was a new German base on the North Sea island of Sylt. But Hitler found time to send Anthony Eden his congratulations on recovering from a spell of illness.

April, 1936—Hitler proposed a four-month truce in Rhineland dispute, couldn't understand England's and France's unwillingness to let him fortify the territory. So, just for a joke, he marched his soldiers in and left them there.

April, 1937—German Finance Minister Schacht said Germany wouldn't object to including Russia in a European economic agreement.

Mussolini warned that Italy wouldn't guarantee the independence of Austria if the Hapsburg royal family were allowed to return. (Hitler took the ball away from him on that one before long.)

New York (AP)—Magistrate Ambrose Haddock doesn't forget a face.

When a prisoner appeared before him a voluntary charge of vagrancy, Magistrate Haddock studied his face and turned his mind back to childhood days.

"I sentence you to 30 days, 'Jigger' and you're lucky I don't give you an additional sentence for stealing my shoes 34 years ago," he said. "Jigger" blushed at the mention of his old nickname but denied it was he who had taken the judge's shoes when he was swimming in the river.

conference; he also denounced the Polish non-aggression treaty and the naval and Munich agreements with Great Britain.

Mussolini turned down FDR's appeal too and said the idea of war was ridiculous—look, the Italians were sending an exhibit to the World's Fair in New York. It was that month that Italy invaded Albania.

Germany emphasized friendship for Yugoslavia (that one paid off exactly two years later) and published Rumania's reply to a questionnaire that she felt a "lack of security."

April, 1940—Germany invaded Denmark and Norway. (Ain't that a killer?)

April, 1941—Germany pushed down the Balkans and occupied Greece.

The Axis forced its way into Egypt from Libya.

German raiders were preying on shipping in the Indian Ocean.

Those Vigilantes Watch False Alarms Now

Pueblo, Colo. (AP)—A citizen's vigilante committee — like the ones that went after horse thieves—has been organized in Pueblo to deal with a rising number of false fire alarms. The citizens have been assigned to various districts of the city to spot persons who pull alarm boxes. Club members said the fire conservation program and the scarcity of materials for fire apparatus repairs make the elimination of unnecessary fire runs imperative.

World's Tallest Building Is Ready For Air Raids

By George Tucker
New York.—For 10 months now at 350 Fifth Avenue they've been making very special plans for callers who may not even know up.

That's quite unusual, because 350 Fifth Avenue is the Empire State building and callers are an everyday thing. The callers are planning for, though, are not had actors who drop calling cards from airplanes.

From the top of the world's tallest building, all the way down the 102 stories to the bottom, the Empire State is organized and ready for air raids.

That is, the building is as ready as any building can be for an air raid. As C. L. Brown, general manager of the Empire State, points out:

"Every building has its own individual problems. Ours is amplified because we don't offer much of a target at the top. On the other hand, the top 16 stories of this building are practically all glass (the 'mooring mast' tower that's a New York landmark) and that gives us a problem of our own."

Ever since May 14, building officials and tenants have been discussing, in an average of two meetings each week, possible procedure in the event of an air raid—the means of getting as many as 8,000 persons to the safest possible places. The result: Every floor in the building has been organized, with one person designated as a chief monitor and with assistant monitors for every 16 persons.

Special equipment has been installed; sandbuckets, sandbags, portable fire-fighting gadgets, and such.

As for taking care of persons in the building, the plan is quite simple. Building officials have "suggested" (Brown explains that a building can't go ordering its tenants around even in times like these) that everyone on floors from the second to the eighteenth stay on those floors and go to the center of the building. Wide corridors provide ample space, he says.

Visitors to the tower will be brought from there by elevator, along with tenants above the 80th floor, to the 32nd and 18th floors where they are to remain during the raid.

Brown estimates that the 7,000 to 8,000 persons in the 2,000,000 feet of rentable space in the building can be handled in three or four minutes.

In Livingston county, 450 to 500 school children were fed hot school lunches during the winter.

To raise the pile on chenille garments, after they have been laundered and dried, go over lightly with a soft brush. Handle carefully to prevent tearing or pulling out of threads.

Among The County Agents

Though the number of hogs have dwindled to an all-time low on Knott county farms, replacements rapidly are being made.

Leslie county 4-Hers are obtaining loans to start raising pigs, chickens and potatoes. Brady Hatfield, Greenup county, is conducting an electrical brooding demonstration. Planning for maximum use of land for war, Washington county farmers have located 60,000 acres that may be improved by cover crops.

In Fleming county, 5,000 acres of old pastures will be "patched" by 500 farmers who want to grow more food for defense.

Trimble county farmers have pooled their spring orders for strawberry plants to get high-quality plants at low cost. The fat stock projects of Harrison county 4-H boys and girls are well under way, a survey shows.

Several Meade county poultry raisers attended an incubator school, held at Irvington, Breckinridge county.

Mrs. J. T. Chatham, who is furnishing the community with whole milk, has bought a high-grade dairy bull from the Camenish Bros.

Approximately 50 Wolfe county farmers are actively in the market for hybrid corn.

Conservation of clothing, remodeling and wise buying are being suggested in home demonstration work in Caldwell county.

To raise the pile on chenille garments, after they have been laundered and dried, go over lightly with a soft brush. Handle carefully to prevent tearing or pulling out of threads.

Helps For Housewives

If you wear rubber or canvas work gloves when cleaning silver, dusting and doing general house straightening, you will find your hands will be much softer. This is especially advised during cold weather and when the wash water is hard.

To prevent marks and wrinkles on velvet gowns hang them on padded hangers and allow plenty of closet space. Inspect frequently to make sure that they have not slipped or been pushed over against clothing stored in the closet.

Here is an easy and safe way to launder dainty lace collars: Make up a hot suds with mild soap or soap powder, put in fruit jar, add collars and cover with lid. Let soak 5 minutes and then shake gently several times. Rinse thoroughly in 3 cold rinse waters. Carefully shake out the collars and let dry on turkish towel. Press on wrong side with warm iron.

Cream cheese mixed into boiled dressing makes tangy covering for plain, frozen or jellied fruit salad. Try some chopped mint in French dressing served with lettuce salad when there is lamb on the menu.

When bananas are to be cooked select those firm, yellow and slightly greenish on the tips. Bananas for eating should be a golden yellow in color and with brownish flecks scattered over the skin.

For a piquant cocktail stick, stuff three inch stalks of crisp, tender celery with white cream cheese to which diced shrimps and salad dressing have been added. Chill until serving time.

When pie crust is baked, before filling is added, do a good job of pricking the crust with a fork, all over the bottom and on the sides of the unbaked crust. This will prevent blisters in the crust.

Celery tops, one of the cheapest sources of vitamins and minerals, may be boiled with turnips, carrots, onions and cauliflower to give an interesting new flavor. The stock makes excellent soup stew or sauce.

State Employees Offer To Extend Work Without Pay

Value Of Extra Hours Would Be $39,000 For Year, Says Director V. E. Barnes

Frankfort, March 24 (Special) —The Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission had under consideration today a request by its more than 250 employees for an extension of working hours, without pay, during the present national emergency. The petition, presented by the employees, asked they be permitted to work 44 hours each week, as compared with the present 39-hour a week schedule.

In presenting the petition, an employee spokesman declared that one-third of the male employees of the Commission had either already gone into military services or were scheduled for induction within the next few months.

"Those of us who have either already gone or are going into service will not be fighting on a 40 hour a week basis, and the employees who are not expected to be called feel that it's going to take a lot more than a 40-hour a week effort back home to win the war. An extra hour a day for each employee is not much to contribute, individually, but collectively it adds up to approximately 6,000 hours a month. That is equal to the services of over 30 full-time employees. We have talked it over among ourselves and this feeling almost without exception, represents the individual viewpoint of each one of us."

Although declining to say what action the Commission would take upon the unusual request, Executive Director V. E. Barnes of the Commission expressed appreciation for the employees' spirit of service and termed their voluntary offer "a splendid gesture and one which, I am sure, will invoke a spontaneous and favorable reaction among all of us who believe that only through concerted and unstinted effort will final victory over the nation's enemies be achieved."

Pointing out that the average hourly wage scale for all employees is approximately 60 cents an hour, Barnes said that the yearly total of extra hours of service volunteered by the employees would approximate $39,000.

"Every one of our employees," Barnes said, "has passed state-wide competitive examinations for the positions they hold and they are, with but few exceptions, high school and college graduates. Many of them have rejected better paying positions with private firms to stay at their present jobs. Their latest action in offering to work extra hours each week, without pay, is but another manifestation of the spirit of sacrifice and patriotism which they have shown

Six Seconds Is Par For This Story

San Francisco (AP) — Do you read at the rate of 500 words a minute?

That is a reasonable objective for "adult fast reading," says Prof. Luthern C. Gilbert of the University of California. He warned that poor motor muscular control dating back to childhood makes 250 a minute the limit for many persons.

from the start and which has been reflected in the thousands of dollars of war stamps and bonds which they have purchased and in other defense work. It's a source of pride to the Commission that these employees of the state are not concerned with what they can get but with what they can give to their state and nation in this time of emergency."
